Captions: (optional)

A caption is a few words of text that appear along with a photo. Captions can be a description, a date or even a witty comment. However, too many captions are not necessary and may even annoy your audience. The pictures should be able to speak for themselves and captions should be kept to a minimum!

Photo #	Caption
17	"Oh-Oh...you didn't!" / a significant date / location of a vacation spot , etc....

Chapter Title Slides: (optional)

A Title Slide is a few words of text that appear at the beginning of group of pictures. Title slides can be a description of what's to come in the form of date or even a witty comment. Think of Title Slides like the beginning of a chapter in a book—what is the next chapter going to be about, what words will best describe it.
